

About Allianz Poland

Allianz is among the leaders of Poland's insurance and investment markets. Through a broad range of services, the company provides stability and financial security to over 6 million Polish customers. Allianz stands for quality products and customer service, while being open to innovations which add value and increase customer satisfaction.

Allianz is Poland's second life & health insurer, with a 11.6% market share, and an important property & casualty insurer, with a 4% market share. The company's strategic approach is to strengthen its position in the life market while growing organically its P&C business. Allianz is also one of top asset managers in Poland with thriving mutual and pension fund businesses, which offer attractive savings products for individuals and companies.

In order to grow its multi-product, large-scale business, Allianz is present in all important distribution channels, including tied agency networks, multi-agencies, brokers, auto dealers, aggregators, and bancassurance.

Allianz Poland's offer for SMEs and corporate customers includes group life & health solutions, pension products, as well as P&C corporate lines insurance offered under Allianz Commercial trading name.

Allianz Poland operates as a responsible and sustainable business partner, adhering to best practices and codes of conduct. The company's stability is based on the financial strength of Allianz group which operates in 70 countries across the globe. The Polish business, the largest in the Central European region, contributes to Allianz's position of Europe's top insurer, with a strongest insurance brand globally.
